Day of Prayer

Wednesday 1st and Thursday 2nd May 2024,
12 noon to 12 noon (24 Hours of Prayer)

Throughout the 'Shaping for Mission' initiative, deaneries are playing a central role in rethinking and reshaping our mission as a diocese. As these plans continue to embed into the life of deaneries, and feed into the Diocesan strategic framework, we are inviting deaneries to be central to our praying. We hope this will give as many as possible across the diocese opportunity to discover more about our very varied deaneries and to join in praying for our shared mission in these different contexts.

Other groups and departments will be contributing, as well as friends from our companion and link dioceses.

Click here to see the timetable on the Day of Prayer webpage.

The Archdeacon of Walsall will be leading the opening session at 12 noon on Wednesday and the Archdeacon of Lichfield the closing session on Thursday.

Everyone is very welcome to join any of the sessions throughout the 24 hours for however long or short a time you are able.

As usual, most sessions will take place in the diocese's virtual prayer room via Zoom, click here to join:
